

Battle Cry

Written by Chris Tiegreen

Thursday, 17 September 2009 00:00 -

One of my favorite Winston Churchill quotes is simple but powerful: "Never give in. Never give in. Never, never, never, never -- in nothing, great or small, large or petty -- never give in." It was good advice in the context World War II. It's even better advice for whatever spiritual battle you're facing today. Just a reminder that regardless of what life throws at you, enduring is a victory in itself.